Email: amagnano@bblaw.com

Amy represents health care providers and health care facilities in medical liability litigation, complex health care litigation, and licensing and disciplinary litigation. She also represents clients on a wide range of regulatory matters. As part of this latter focus, Amy counsels legal professionals, health care systems and physician groups on compliance with the HIPAA and HITECH Act, and primarily on the HIPAA privacy, security and breach notification requirements. Amy has been selected to the Washington Super Lawyers® list for five consecutive years from 2017 to 2021. She is also listed in The Best Lawyers in America© in its Health Care Law specialty for 2019 - 2021 and Litigation - Health Care specialty for 2021.

Amy has taught as an adjunct professor in the health law program at University of Washington School of Law, as well as at Seattle University School of Law, for the last five years. Before she joined Bennett, Bigelow & Leedom, Amy clerked for the Honorable Ann Schindler of the Washington State Court of Appeals, Division I.

Amy earned her Bachelor of Arts degree from University of Notre Dame, and graduated magna cum laude from Seattle University School of Law.
