Short Bio

Allison is an attorney in Seattle, Washington who focuses her practice on defending physicians, hospitals, and other healthcare providers in medical negligence litigation. She earned her B.A. in Art history from Whitworth University and went on to receive her J.D. from Creighton University School of Law in 2021. During law school, she earned a Pro Bono Distinction by volunteering in family law, wills, and housing clinics.

Before joining the firm in July 2025, Allison worked in insurance defense, handling cases involving products liability, premises liability, construction defects, and motor vehicle accidents. She combines practical litigation experience with a strong service ethic.
